

BEFORE THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF
THE NATIONAL REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION

CONCERNING: DAN WALL

The NRHA received a complaint concerning Dan Wall along with others.

The matter was investigated in a fair and reasonable manner by an outside firm, independent from the NRHA.

Facts were gathered from numerous witnesses by the independent investigators. Dan Wall was afforded opportunity to present information to present evidence during the investigative process. The facts gathered from the investigation were reported to the Board of Directors by the independent investigator. Dan Wall was excused from the meeting while the matter was discussed.

On motion duly made, seconded and passed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the National Reining Horse Association, the report and findings of the independent investigators was approved and Dan Wall was absolved of any wrongdoing.

Done this 21st day of January, 2012.
